Ephraim Testing Location Directions

This document serves as a guide to locate the Ephraim Beechtree Collection Site.

This testing site is located at 10 W. 100 S., Ephraim, UT 84627. The testing location can be located through the parking lot on the west side of the building. To access the Beechtree Collection Site you will go down the stairs below the State of Utah Drivers License Division. Please see the detailed images below.

Front of Building from Main Street- you will need to go to the rear or west side of the building to access the testing location.

Parking Lot from 100 S.- You can access the parking lot for the testing location on 100 S.

Back of Building- There are several entrances to different businesses on the rear of the building. To access the Beechtree Testing Location you will need to locate the stairs.

Stairs and Testing Location- You will go down the stair to access the Beechtree Testing Location

